

TECHNICAL RESIGNATION

13. A resignation from the service or post entails forfeiture of entire past qualifying service. The exception is technical resignation which does not result in forfeiture of past service.

14. In cases where a Government servant applied for post in the same or the other Departments through proper channel and on selection, is required to resign the previous posts for administrative reasons, the benefit of past service, if otherwise admissible under rules, is given treating the resignation as a "Technical Formality". Resignation submitted for other reasons or if competent authority has not allowed him to forward his application through proper channel is a resignation and benefit of past service will not be admissible.

15. This benefit is also admissible to Government servants who applied for posts in same or other Departments before joining Government service and on that account the application was not routed through proper channel. The benefit of past service is allowed in such cases subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions:-

- (i) the Government servant at the time of joining should intimate the details of such application immediately on their joining.
- (ii) the Government servant at the time of resignation should specifically make a request, indicating that he is resigning to take up another appointment under Government/ Government organisation for which he applied before joining the Government service and that his resignation may be treated a 'technical resignation'.
- (iii) the authority accepting the resignation should satisfy itself that had the employee been in service on the date of application for the post mentioned by the employee, his application would have been forwarded through proper channel.

[OM No. 13/24/92-Estt.(Pay-I) dated 22.01.1993]

CONTINUITY OF SERVICE ON TECHNICAL RESIGNATION

16. A permanent Government servant appointed in another Central Government Department/Office has to resign from his parent department unless he reverts to that department within a period of 2 years, or 3 years in exceptional cases. Such resignations shall not be deemed to be resignation for the purpose of pension, if admissible. As a consequence, continuity of service benefits should be allowed to such employees in the matter of pension, leave, LTC, etc. as admissible under the rules.

17. In cases where Government servants, who had originally joined government service prior to 01.01.2004, apply for posts in the same or other departments and on selection they are asked to tender technical resignation, the past services are counted towards pension under CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972.

This is in continuation with my previous letter no IIITDMJ/Dir/Faculty/2011 dated February 24, 2011 regarding our request to extend the lien of Dr. Atul Gupta for two years to serve in our Institute as associate professor. I wish to thank you for listening to our request and helping us by extending the lien of Dr. Gupta for one year with effect from March, 2011. Dr. Atul Gupta is presently holding important positions of Coordinator, Computer Centre, Discipline Coordinator of Computer Science and Engineering and Convener, Central Purchase Committee apart from his basic duty of teaching and research.

As requested in my earlier letter, we have acute shortage of faculty in computer science and engineering and in the initial development stage of this Institute, we need experienced faculty to contribute in the development of this Institute. It is therefore requested to please extend the lien of Dr. Gupta for one more year so that his services may be continued in this Institute for another year with effect from March 24, 2012.
